Shri Rajendra Salunke -Industrialist MIDC, Dhule

The keynote address was delivered by Principal Dr P P Chhajed, who elaborated the future opportunities available in a country like India, where the population is very vast and gives numerous opportunities in various manufacturing as well as service sector.

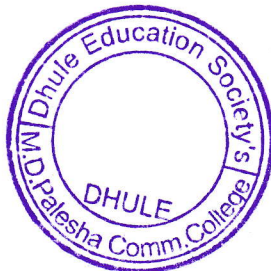

The first session was addressed by Prof. Nivedita Moharir from Sinhagad Institute, Pune. She explained the various opportunities in management field with special focus on finance sector. As the economy is opening up and creating large opportunities for the skilled personnel. She explained opportunities available in finance, insurance and other sectors.

The second session was conducted by Prof. B S Kale, who explained the significance of understanding management principles. He further said that merely understanding management principles may not help them to become good entrepreneur. The application of such principles in field or industry needs lot of personal skills. The students should focus on developing such personal skills, which are of utmost importance for becoming a successful entrepreneur.

Shri Rajendra Salunke, Industrialist from MIDC, Dhule, was the chief guest for the next session. He is in this field for last few years and therefore very authentically explained the teething troubles in becoming a successful entrepreneur. Dreaming big is a different and important thing, but the students must be ready to face the various obstacles which may come up during the journey to become entrepreneur. Problems of Finance, problems of labour, problems in procuring material were the various aspects he focused on. He motivated the students that they should not get dejected because of the initial troubles. The path of success is always difficult but those who strive very hard can become successful in their life. Therefore, instead of searching for jobs, he asked the students for creating their own opportunities and make their destiny.

Prof. P H Badgujar was the speaker in the valedictory function. He expressed satisfaction for the success of the workshop. He expressed gratefulness towards the speakers, who guided the students and also appreciated the inquisitiveness of the students, who asked various questions after every session.
