Report of the workshop

A workshop for women was organized in the college with the help of North Maharashtra University, Jalgaon on 13/12/2015. As the strength of Women students in the college is higher, it was aimed at guiding the women students for creating opportunities for self employment. Following dignitaries were present for the workshop—

Dr Vivekanand Chitale, President of Dhule Education Society, Dhule

Smt Chhaya Belpathak, Social Activist, Dhule

Dr Kharkar, Social Activist, Dhule

Shri Anil Patil, Competitive Examination Guide and Career Guidance expert

For the inaugural session Dr Vivekanand Chitale, President of Dhule Education Society and doctor by profession give the keynote address explaining the significance of women for self employment and empowerment.

Three sessions were organized during the workshop. Smt Chhaya Belpathak, a social activist who is in this field for years together and making sincere efforts for women empowerment, guided the session. She emphasized the need of making the woman capable for generating and creating opportunities for oneself. She further told that it is difficult for the government to provide opportunities in service sector for all the graduates and therefore specifically women should create their own path and support oneself and the family. This was the focus of her speech. She emphasized that empowerment of women will make the family and Society healthy and strong.

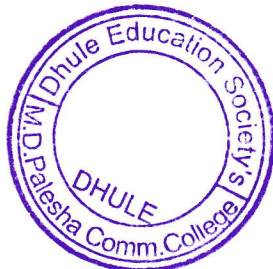

The second session was conducted by Dr Kharkar who acquainted the students with the numerous opportunities available in various sectors. She also guided the students for creating self help group, beauty parlours, garment industry and home made products. This will help them to be stronger and self-reliant. Further, there is need in the society for health awareness. Having one's own gym or work as trainer besides opportunities in Yoga sector was also focussed by Dr Kharkar.

The final session was conducted by Shri Anil Patil, who told various government schemes available for starting one's own business. He detailed the assistance provided by government under the various schemes, which may help the students to start one's own business.

Every session was followed by questions and answers. The students actively participated in the sessions asking various questions and all the resource person explained the students regarding the doubts. Overall, the entire workshop was successful and gave direction to the students, who wanted to become self-reliant without depending on government or for employment on others.

Prof. Ujjwala wani addressed in the valedictory function. She appreciated the noble work of the resource persons, appreciated the students for their active participation, their urge for getting new information for building their career. She expressed vote of thanks on behalf of the college. Total 85 students were present for the workshop.
